Minnesota EDA Center Publishes "Successful Businesses in Rural Minnesota

By Itollefs on Wednesday, October 10, 2012

The Minnesota EDA Center, based at the U of M Crookston, recently published its latest report, "Successful Businesses in Rural Minnesota: Lessons Learned" by faculty members Eyad Youssef, Ph.D., Jack Geller, Ph.D., Ken Myers, and Denis Maier, Ph.D.

The report details common traits and characteristics related to new business success across rural Minnesota in order to identify successful "second-stage" businesses and to understand the factors leading to their success. The report is available online.
